Gen. Grant's Poverty—Another Subscription Wanted.

The Chinese Bill Has Not Reached a Vote—Edmunds Will Not Accept—The Hawaiian Treaty.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Gen. Grant is not the wealthy man he is represented to be. He is very much in need of the pay provided for in Gen. Logan's bill restoring him at once. According to trustworthy reports, he is without any personal income. The house given to him in New York was deeded to his wife. Then Gen. Grant thought he had a fortune in the funds collected for him by Jones, the publisher of the New York Times; but Jones collected for him only $25,000. This money was invested in Wabash railroad stock, which has depreciated in value to such an extent that no income is obtained from it. None of the investments that Grant has made in New York have been successful. He has been tried as President and Director in a great many concerns, but he draws no money, so he is being gradually dropped by the investors who were anxious a year or two ago to carry him for the advantages his name might give them. His son, "Buck" Grant, is quite rich, and making plenty of money. The General's position, however, is full of embarrassment. It is from a partial knowledge of General Grant's condition that his friends have been so earnestly urging the bill for restoring him to the army. It is now, however, pretty certain that this bill will fail in the House, because the Democrats have already agreed upon a policy which, if carried out, will defeat the measure.

THE CHINESE BILL AMENDMENTS.

In the Senate the consideration of the Chinese bill was resumed at 4 P. M. Senator Platt opposed it. Platt continued speaking until after 3 o'clock. A vote was then taken on the Ingalls amendment, to reduce the period of suspension from twenty years to ten years, and it was lost by a tie vote of 28 yeas against 28 nays. The affirmative vote on the Ingalls amendment included at least four Senators who, while preferring the ten-years' period, will nevertheless vote for the longer period rather than vote against the bill. Several Senators who are in favor of passthe bill without amendment were absent temporarily. Hoar has taken the floor to renew his general opposition to the bill, and is speaking at 3:30 o'clock.

THE VOTE ON INGALL'S AMENDMENT.

The vote in detail on Ingall's amendment was: Ayes—Aldrich, Allison, Blair, Brown, Cockrell, Conger, Davis (Ill.), Dawes, Edmunds, Frye, Harris, Hoar, Ingalls, Jackson, Lacham, McDill, McMillan, Mitchell, Morrill, Saunders, Sewell, Sherman and Teller; total 28. Nays—Bayard, Beck, Call, Cameron (Wis.), Coke, Fair, Farley, Garland, George, Hale, Hampton, Hill (Colo.), Jones (Fla.), Jones (Nev.), McPherson, Maxey, Miller (Cala.), Miller (N. Y.), Morgan, Ransom, Slater, Vest and Walker; total, 28.

THE HAWAIIAN TREATY.

In the Senate to-day Miller of New York presented a memorial from numerous New York merchants for some action looking to the termination of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty, if it shall appear that its provisions have been evaded by passing a different grade of sugar than that contemplated in the treaty free of duty. Action is to be taken to remedy such evasions.

THE CHINESE BILL IN THE SENATE.

On motion of Brown an amendment was adopted allowing the Chinese to make their signatures by marks with witness. Pending a vote on Farley's amendment prohibiting the admission of Chinese to citizenship, Hale moved an adjournment and there being, on a division, twenty-five ayes against twenty-two nays, the presiding officer at 6:10 declared the Senate adjourned.

URGING EDMUNDS TO ACCEPT.

The President has urged Senator Edmunds to reconsider his declination of the Supreme Judgeship and has refrained from making another appointment, thinking he could persuade Edmunds to accept, but the friends of the latter who enjoy his confidence, say he will not consent under any circumstances to accept. Senator Davis, of Illinois, is very anxious to have Edmunds appointed to the Supreme bench, and it is said a request was made through him to Edmunds to reconsider, but it is evident that Edmunds is firm in his declination and the President is now satisfied of this fact.

A GOOD SCHEME.

Senator Saunders to-day submitted a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution allowing the people to elect Postmasters, Internal Revenue officers, U. S. Marshals and District Attorneys. He has studied the question as a member of the Civil Service Committee, and is satisfied that this is a wise and essential proposition.

A Train Wrecked.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 8.—Yesterday a passenger and freight train were wrecked on the Knoxville and Ohio Railroad near this city. Eight men were wounded—none of them fatally. The engine and two cars passed safely over a trestle, but the next two box cars and a mail car fell through. A car containing negro laborers was left perched upon the embankment.

RIOTOUS STRIKERS.

Two Thousand Men in Line Masters of the Situation.

OMAHA, Neb., March 8.—Some ten days ago one hundred or more men engaged in grading for the B. & M. Railroad Company, demanded $1.25 per day. This request was complied with. The men then struck for $1.50 per day which was also conceded. They then demanded $1.75 which was refused. The men then stopped work. Since then a number of meetings have been held and a Labor Union organized, numbering over 1,000 members. The rate fixed by the Union was $1.75 per day and to-day the Union held a grand demonstration. Over 2,000 men formed in line, and, headed by a band, paraded the streets. This afternoon the procession of laborers marched to a place where some one hundred men were engagad in grading under guard of a large force of special policemen. The men seeing the mob approaching fled, leaving behind their coats and dinner pails. The crowd proceeded to cut the horses loose from the scrapers, scattered the tools and committed many other riotous proceedings which was witnessed by thousands. The special policemen were roughly handled and ten had their stars torn from their breasts. Several were badly beaten who resisted and drew weapons. One policeman fired a pistol and was with difficulty rescued from the fury of the mob by a strong force of policemen. Great excitement prevails. The prominent strikers say that the graders shall not work any more for less than $1.75 per day. At 5 o'clock the mob dispersed, but it is feared the worst is still to come. Mayor Boyd will probably call on the Governor for military protection.

Directory and Earnings of the U. P.

NEW YORK, March 8.—At the annual meeting of the Union Pacific Railroad to-day the following Directors were elected: Sidney Dillon, Elisha Atkins, Frederick L. Ames, Ezra H. Baker, S. H. H. Clark, F. Gordon Dexter, David Dows, Grenville M. Dodge, T. T. Eckert, Jay Gould, Solon Humphreys, Russell Sage, Augustus, Schell, Wm. H. Scott and John Tharp. At a subsequent meeting of the Directors Sidney Dillon was re-elected President and a quarterly dividend of 1¼ declared. The total earnings this year were $24,258,817; last year, $22,455,134, Expenses this year, $12,480,843; last year, $10,545,119. Net earnings this year, $11,778,474, against $11,910,015 last year. The decrease in net earnings is accounted for by the fact that the company laid $590,794 worth of rails in excess of last year. The debt of the company is $4,025,078, which is more than covered by the available bonds, securities and supplies on hand. The company holds securities on other roads amounting to $51,778,000, of which $22,000,000 are par and pay dividends, and over $25,000,000 net 2½ per cent. per annum to the company.

Bliss a Usurper.

CHICAGO, March 8.—The Times' Washington special says that Dr. Boynton has written a letter to Dr. Baxter saying that Bliss was never placed in charge of the President's case by any member of the President's family, and was continued without any authority from them throughout the entire case. Upon the back of Boynton's letter is an endorsement by Mrs. Garfield of the truth of the statements therein made. Dr. Baxter has circulated this letter among Senators and members in order to defeat Bliss' bill.

Profits of Telegraphy.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The quarterly statement of the Western Union shows a net revenue for the quarter ending December 31st of $1,731,235. Deducting appropriations for dividends, the surplus on January 1st was $1,035,273. The net profits since the American Union and Atlantic and Pacific Company were absorbed have been $737,900; the gross revenue, $16,868,000, and the surplus is $886,988. A dividend has been declared payable April 15th.

Tell It Not in Gath.

CHICAGO, March 8.—The Journal's Washington special says: It is whispered that Conkling's declination may lead to a rupture between himself and Arthur, as it is believed he urged, in his letter of declination, the appointment of Clarence Seward, but the President determined not to appoint him.

Murdered for Money.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., March 8.—John O. Massey and wife, an aged couple living near here and possessed of considerable means, were found murdered yesterday morning in their house and the money gone.

Tramping a Good Business.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The pedestrian Hazael to-day got $9,380 gate money and $9,000 sweepstakes; Fitzgerald got $4,750; Noremac, $2,271; Hart, $1,593; Hughes, $1,125; Sullivan, $750.

The Scarlet Woman.

MT. VERNON, Ky., March 8.—Mary Sigman, the famous scarlet woman of Roundstone, and her mother, have been assassinated by some unknown person.

Murdered by a Policeman.

BOSTON, Mass., March 8.—An ex-policeman is suspected of the murder of Mrs. Bell, yesterday. The policemen are severely censured for allowing him to escape.

THE FLOODS.

Cutting Through a Town and Destroying the Principal Houses.

MEMPHIS, March 8.—2 P. M.—The river is stationary here. The levee is still intact at Helena, and 300 men are guarding it. At Austin, Miss., the river cut through the town, destroying the principal buildings, and the situation is hourly growing desperate.

LIFE AND PROPERTY DAMAGED.

Reports of great suffering of people in the overflowed districts continue to arrive. In Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee there are 43,000 persons whose condition is such as demands prompt attention at the hands of the Government. The change in the weather has increased the suffering, and many lives must be lost from exposure. Thirty counties of Louisiana now under water are the richest cotton land in the world, and if they are not rescued the cotton crop the coming year will be cut down at least a million bales.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—The committee appointed by the San Francisco Stock Exchange to consider the question of starting a wheat deal, has reported. The plan is to organize a new association under the auspices of the Board, to be known as the San Francisco Grain Exchange. This organization is to have a membership of one hundred and fifty, its own officers and directors, its own caller, and be entirely distinct from the old Board, though under the patronage of the latter. The Exchange will meet daily at 1:20 P. M.

SANTA ROSA, Cala., March 8.—In the suit of the San Francisco & North Pacific Railroad Company to resist the Sonoma county tax levy, in the Superior Court here, Judge Pressly gave his decision against the company and the Sheriff will proceed to sell the road property to-morrow for taxes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 8.—California, 30c; Curry, 3½; Mexican, 8½; Nevada, 7½; Eureka, 16½; Alpha, 1½; Jacket, 30; Best, 6½; Point, 25c; Belcher, 25; Utah, 5; Diablo, 6½; Belle, 9½; Bullion, 70; Bodie, 4½; King, 16½.

THE ANTI POLYGAMY BILL.

Putting Their Money Where it Will do the Most Good.

SALT LAKE, March 7.—The delay in Congress over the Anti-Polygamy bill causes grave apprehension among the Gentiles of Utah. They believe that the lull in the warfare is occasioned by the liberal use of Mormon gold placed where it would "do the most good." Letters from Washington on the subject are all of the most discouraging nature, and state that the men who were the most outspoken in their views against polygamy a few weeks ago, are now either lukewarm or openly advocating the policy of seating Cannon and letting the polygamists alone. No Gentile in Salt Lake has much hope for the future, if Mormon influences in Congress are too strong for any bill to pass without being utterly disemboweled. The Mormons are boasting of their success and offering to bet that Cannon will be seated and that there will be no anti-Mormon legislation. A Constitutional Convention is called for April 10th, at which time the Mormons will ask to have Utah admitted as a State.

REPUBLICAN INTEGRITY.

The indictment of the Star Route conspirators sustains the well established reputation of the Republican party for integrity of purpose in conducting all of the many ramifications of governmental interests. To throttle these men who were pillaging by wholesale was a risky as well as daring undertaking. It was boarding the lion in his den. One of the indicted was the late Assistant Postmaster-General, Thos. J. Brady, and others ex-Senator Stephen W. Dorsey and his brother. They were active and influential partisans, and to antagonize them was possibly to risk a future success; for, sad as is the confession, they had no inconsiderable following,—and being of that class of politicians who would form leagues for success even with the evil one himself,—there was no telling where the influence of their opposition to the party might end. Mr. George Bliss, who has been the manager of the prosecution, undoubtedly is of the masses of the party who are partisans from principle, and we know well that unless the heads of the government punish these culprits the disaffection among the worthy would be more extensive than it would be among the supporters of the knaves. His association with the better elements in the party has taught him who are at all times its reliable supporters when there is anything of principle and the interests of the great people at stake.

Harper's Weekly, which publication we always find on the right side in politics in so far as Republicanism is concerned, thus closes some reflections on the Star Route trials:

"Those who hold that morality in politics is humbug, may lay this lesson to heart. The Star Route frauds would easily have added the last decisive force to the argument against the continuance of the Republican party in power. That argument is that a party becomes irremediably careless and corrupt. But a party which deals vigorously and rigorously with its own offenders, shows a character and intelligence which furnish the strongest argument for its continued dominance. No party can guard completely against knavery in its agents. But if it promptly and unsparingly proclaims and punishes them, it proves itself, so far, worthy of confidence. The Star Route cases, if pushed resolutely to the end, will show in the results upon public opinion that, even from the party point of view, honesty is the best policy."

THE CHINESE.

The San Francisco Journal of Commerce gives some facts bearing upon the Chinese question it is well to know and remember now that we have waked up again to the fact that the Mongolians are eating up the country:

"As a matter of fact the Chinese element is slowly but surely supplanting the white. Where in 1878 there were 500 white cigar makers, there are now only 179; but the Chinese have increased from 4,000 to 8,500. Eleven years ago there were no Chinese tailors. Now they number 7,510, against 1,000 white. The Chinese made only slippers eleven years since; now 5,700 of their number manufacture shoes, as against 1,100 whites making boots and shoes, while the factories owned by Chinese number 187 against 37 owned by whites. In other lines they are making steady progress, while they are not slow in taking up ranches and farms. All this may be a testimony to their superior industry. It is really from their superior cheapness that they drive out white master and workman and take possession. It is a good thing for them but bad for the people, whether workers or capitalists, whether laboring with the hand or brain that built up this coast."

This showing is undoubtedly about correct as to figures. The moral we would draw is this: If the whites had not increased their patronage in these years of opposition to the Chinese—in sentiment only, as the above proves—their business had not increased. And we will supplement our conclusion with the assertion that unless we withdraw our patronage from them we can never get rid of them or prevent their getting into the country. A cordon of troops around the entire circumference of the country would be required to beat back the horde that would come if, as now, we continue to invite them and furnish them the means of subsistence.

We often think of it, and the thought makes us sad indeed—and we must now give utterance to our thoughts—What would an esteemed Democratic contemporary do in the event of the taking off of that saint and paragon of Democracy—that corner-stone of his past, present and future hopes—the patriot of patriots, the statesman of statesmen, the model of honesty and knowledge—Sammy J. Tilden? From the first day that the clarion notes of the Democracy were sent out to rally the faithful in another struggle for the the "lost cause" in 1876, Tilden has been the constant theme of our friend. Tilden has been his daily meat and beer, his labor and his recreation. His admiration for the political martyr has amounted to positive idolatry, and the wickedest fanaticism. And it has been pathetic and tender as well, We are reminded of Ruth and Naomi: "Thy people shall be my people and thy God my God—where thou diest will I die and there will I be buried!" Tilden dead! Then well might our friend exclaim:

"Othello's occupation gone!" We think we see him! The trenchant pen has fallen from his grasp; upon a cliff he stands, and with arms outstretched over the dark waters—"Guide me, Aucibis! Tilden, I come!!"

THE CROWN OF THE VALLEY.

Such is the title of a most readable article in the Californian for March, from the ready pen of Mrs. Jeanne C. Carr. She has given a very sweet picture of a sweet place, but we have never read any attempt to describe Pasadena without feeling as did the Queen of Sheba after beholding King Solomon in all his glory—"the half had not been told her,"—and so we rise from the contemplation of the picture of Mrs. C. unsatisfied. And to those who had seen the hills over which are now scattered such lovely villas and groves, when they were in the "sere and yellow leaf" of a California after-summer, the transformation to the present seems a work of magic. The metamorphosis is a wonderful one and could not be wrought in a less favorable clime, and on a less favorable soil. We have this story from the lady herself. "Seven years ago last August,—I think that was the month,—I drove the first lady resident to Pasadena. Not a plough had been put into the earth, not a tree was planted, not a house erected. The husband of the lady had hauled to the ground the lumber for the erection of a house, and a cook stove as a nucleus for a kitchen, which was improvised with rough lumber, and was to serve as parlor, kitchen and all until the mansion was erected. 'And oh! how my heart ached,' said the lady, 'to think of leaving my friend in such a lonely, desolate place.' Behold the residence of W. H. Clapp, Esq., to-day. His place and its surroundings are things of beauty and will remain a joy forever."

We cannot refrain copying a few paragraphs from the article we have alluded to:

"What is now known as Pasadena includes two corporations; viz., the "Orange Grove Association," or the original Indiana Colony; and the "Lake Vineyard Land and Water Association," a thickly settled tract, upon which there is an orange grove covering two hundred acres, and also the orchards and vineyards of Messrs. Crank, Craig, Brigdon, Allen and Kinney,

A new settlement, named Sierra Vista, from the noble view it commands of the majestic San Bernardino, makes a continuous line of small fruit farms for a distance of nearly ten miles. Its eastern limit is Santa Anita, the princely estate of E. J. Baldwin.

Until recently, the foothills surrounding Pasadena have remained uncultivated. We loved to see the great patches of vivid coloring—blue of lupin, and gold of eschscholtzia—and to steal an hour in the rocky canyons to enjoy the ceanothus and manzanita in bloom. But all this is changed. Eastern capitalists, borne hither by a sure instinct of gain, have bought the bee and bear pastures, and are bringing the water of remoter mountain streams to their residences. Already we look up to the hills and see the glimmer of lights at evening, where one year ago "Our Lord's Candlestick," the yucca, or Spanish bayonet, glorified the mountain solitudes.

But there are still unconquered regions for the naturalist and scenery hunter. A picturesque road, now little more than a trail, marks the old "penitencia," over which the friars walked to San Fernando Ray to the parent Mission, San Gabriel. From it one may enter the heart of the wildest and ruggedest regions of the Sierra Nevada range, to find the sugar pine and douglas fir, snow plants on the flanks of Mt. San Antonio, and lily gardens everywhere. There, too, are cascades and trout streams; and within the year both deer and bear meat have been offered in our local market. But the fringes of the San Fernando valley are beginning to attract the army of home builders, and we hear of purchases at Morningside, again at Cucamongo; so that another decade will see the whole foothill region of the southern Sierra occupied.

To shorten this already too long account of a settlement, all of which is less than eight, and most of which is only four and five, years old, I will say that it has been a success, financially and socially. Land which cost the original settlers thirty-five dollars per acre, with their water rights, has increased tenfold in value. Choice central locations have brought one thousand dollars per acre. The population has increased in the same ratio. Pasadena products command the highest prices, and have won the highest premiums paid for collective exhibits at the fairs, not to speak of numberless trophies won by individual exhibitors.

A narrow-gauge railway is projected, to connect Los Angeles with Colton, via Pasadena, the Duarte, Azusa and Pomona. This will ere long open another beautiful and fertile section to new associations, which will doubtless improve upon our model. But at least we have solved the problem how to secure the pleasures of rural life without its pains—to command both solitude and society. But we frankly acknowledge our inferiority to the "F. F. Co.'s," in this: that we still have too much work and worry, and have not yet learned to bask in the pure sunshine, at peace with God, with Nature, and with ourselves."

The Colorado river is rising steadily—an unusual occurrence at this season of the year. It is attributed to the unprecedented quantity of snow in the mountains.

J. H. Stewart & Co., the wholesale dealers in tobacco and cigars will occupy the store fronting Los Angeles street in the White House block, on next Monday.

The track-layers on the California Southern railroad are seventy-two miles from National City, and are now in the Temecula canyon. There are fifty-nine miles yet to be completed in order to reach Colton.

Mr. Freeman, of the Centinela ranch, has stopped sowing after keeping it up almost without intermission until a few days ago. The early sown barley looks well and will make a good crop with ordinary rains.

The extraordinary inducements offered by Fox & Koster until the first of April should be taken advantage of. They advertise to sell at cost until then, and mean what they say. See announcement in "New To-Day."

E. W. Pratt and M. Threlkeld, of Kansas City, have leased the Aliso Mills building for the purpose of starting a coffee and spice factory. They will receive the necessary machinery in a few days and will then commence operations on a large scale.

Ground was broken yesterday for the two frame stores of H. Burdick on the corner of Spring and Second streets. W. A. Henderson will occupy the corner one—twenty feet front by fifty deep, as a grocery, produce and commission house, and John Slaughter the other—nineteen feet front by fifty deep—as a saddlery and harness store.

About 6 o'clock last evening a little girl fell from the elevator, used in hauling material in the Normal school building, sustaining severe internal injuries, although no bones were broken. Some boys had pulled her up to the third story, from which she fell. Dr. Widney is attending her, and at last accounts the child was unconscious.

Mr. Vickery, of Newton, Kansas, who arrived here yesterday, was in Los Angeles three or four months, ago but became scared on account of the many unfavorable reports with reference to dry weather and returned home. He has come to stay this time, however, satisfied that Los Angeles county offers more favorable inducements than any place he was ever in before.

Smash Up.

A rumor was current on the streets last night that a special freight train had met with an accident near Sepulveda, but the nature and extent we could not learn, as well as the truthfulness of the report.

Wedding Bells.

The residence of Mr. J. R. McManis was the scene of a very interesting ceremony last evening—the nuptials of Mr. C. T. Paul and Miss Abbie Merrill, both worthy and highly respected young people of this city. Rev. J. W. Ellis tied the knot in an impressive manner, after which a merry and enjoyable time was had by all present. The TIMES congratulates both on their admirable selection and wishes them peace, happiness and prosperity in their joint pilgrimage through life.

A Fine Garden.

L. J. Stengel purchased the Horton greenhouse while at San Diego recently, and will remove its contents to his gardens on Los Angeles street. By the way, this institution is one of which Los Angeles may well feel proud, demonstrating as it does in the most forcible manner the wonderful capabilities of soil and diversity of the products of Southern California. Eastern visitors should not fail to visit Stengel's Exotic Gardens before leaving Los Angeles.

Demanding Poll-Tax of Firemen.

County Tax Collector Cullen has served notices on the members of the Fire Department that $4 is due from each active and exempt member for poll-tax. Such a proceeding is not magnanimous, nor is it just towards members of an institution which protects our homes and business interests from the dreadful scourge of fire; composed of brave and determined men, always ready at a moment's notice to risk their lives, day or night—and without compensation. It would seem sufficiently humiliating on the part of the city to accept the services of our noble firemen without compensation, but to enforce the payment of a paltry poll-tax is absolutely degrading. Such a stain on the honor of Los Angeles should not be permitted to remain, but let it be wiped out immediately by means of a public subscription if no other method is presented. Mr. Cullen is merely discharging his duty as tax collector in the matter, hence no blame can be attached to him.

GARFIELD'S MONUMENT.

A Request for $250 From Los Angeles County.

Over $70,000 Raised in the City of Cleveland—The Entire Fund Amounts to $100,000—Help the Cause.

A gentleman of this city has received a letter from Congressman Page, which is this morning presented as a matter of general interest:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27, 1882.

MY DEAR SIR: I have been requested by the Committee at Cleveland, Ohio, having charge of the erection of a proper monument at the grave of General Garfield, to assist them in the collection of funds for that purpose in the State of California. Over $70,000 has been raised in the city of Cleveland for this purpose, and several thousand more, the Committee informs me, have been voluntarily subscribed in different parts of the country, making a total subscription of about $100,000 up to date. It is the desire of the Committee, however, to make the monument a thoroughly national one by having every State contribute something toward it. The comparatively small amount required of each State, outside of Ohio, in order to carry out the purpose of the Committee, ought to make it easily secured.

I have told the Committee that I believed California would contribute her quota promptly and cheerfully, if properly applied to; and have suggested yourself as a gentleman likely to take an interest in raising Los Angeles' share of what is expected from our State. Will you not, therefore, make an effort to raise, say $250 in Los Angeles, and forward it to the Garfield Monument Committee, at Cleveland, Ohio, with a list of the names of subcribers and their amounts, so that certificates of their subscriptions may be sent them?

Hoping for your co-operation in the matter, I remain, very truly yours,

H. F. PAGE.

A subscription list will be opened at the TIMES office and the patriotic are solicited to call and subscribe. Each will be credited with the amount given and the names forwarded to the Committee, when proper credit will be given to all.

Board of Supervisors.

WEDNESDAY, March 8.

Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present, Prager, Cooper, Hannon and Rogers.

On motion of Supervisor Cooper the District Attorney is hereby instructed to enter satisfaction of the judgment in the suit of the County of Los Angeles vs. C. C. Lamb et als., brought to recover the sum of $1,301.10 due from said C. C. Lamb for fees, percentage and perquisites received by him as County Recorder, for the month of December, 1881. Said judgment having been made and entered in favor of plaintiff on March 3, 1882, it appearing from the report of the County Treasurer and the books of the County Auditor that the said C. C. Lamb paid the said sum of $1,301.10 into the County Treasury on the 6th day of February, 1882.

Adjourned until Monday, April 3, 1882.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A Pleasant Gathering at Alhambra—Who Were There.

A very pleasant surprise party was given to the Misses Kate and Velma Browne, at their house, the residence of C. P. Brown, Alhambra, Tuesday evening, March 7th, by a few of their many friends from Alhambra and Pasadena. The party arrived at 8 o'clock and were entertained with vocal and instrumental music by the Misses Browne, Miss Freeman and Mr. Clark, after which several hours were spent in games and dancing. At 11 o'clock refreshments were served, after which the party dispersed, with the assurance that the surprise had been a happy success and an event long to be remembered. Among those present were the following:

Ladies—Miss Freeman, the Misses Werner, Maggie Hogan, Georgia Elliott, Jessie Ross, Nellie Jones, Florence Carter, Belle Eaton and Mrs. Bryson.

Gentlemen—C. W. Bell, G. P. Clark, C. W. Winston, West Banbury, J. D. Rose, Will Phillips, A. B. Clapp, S. M. Cambell, George Eaton, Mr. Goodwin and the Messrs. Bryson. S. R. S.

An Auspicious Event.

Mme. D. S. Corona de Weihs has just returned from San Francisco with the largest and best assortment of millinery fancy goods and novelities of the latest styles, comprising the latest New York importations. The grand opening will commence to-day, at 45 Main street, under the Cosmopolitan Hotel, continuing until Saturday night. Mme. Corona de Weihs will be pleased to have the ladies of Los Angeles call and inspect the magnificent display, assuring them that it will repay their trouble.

The Card Craze.

Yesterday afternoon on one street corner over a dozen children were standing together comparing the various fancy business cards they had gathered from the different firms. Some had as high as two or three dozen kind, and the mania for gathering them seems to excel the postage stamp fiend or that of the relic hunter. It is fun for the printers, but death to the merchants.

A Flush Deck.

A "bad" young man from San Jose was visiting his sister in town this week. While the latter was sewing a button on his ulster a flush deck fell out. She piously relegated the pasteboard to the flames, and the "bad" young man is looking to see where he can get a quarter to buy another pack.

Brick for the New Winery.

Mr. Thomas Goss is reported to have purchased a blue-gum tree grove at Nadeau's that will yield about eight hundred cords of wood, with which he proposes to burn twelve hundred thousand brick for the new winery at the Five Mile House.

Truth is Mighty.

One of the innumerable family of Smiths was basely slandered in Judge Adam's court yesterday, but truth was mighty and did prevail, and the charge against him of being drunk and disorderly was set aside and the chain-gang failed of an addition to its ranks,

Phœenix papers say money and locals are scarce along Salt river, but it is quite likely the supply of politicians is still kept up.

A street railroad between Santa Barbara and Montecito is among the are-to-be's.

SANTA BARBARA TO LOS ANGELES.

What a Traveler Observed—Good Prospects all the Way.

N. M. Kellogg, a cheese manufacturer of Santa Barbara, formerly of Ventura county, arrived here yesterday. He came on horseback from Santa Barbara to Newhall, thence by rail. He reports that the country between Santa Barbara and Ventura is sown mostly to wheat, which looks well. Between Ventura and Santa Paula there is a large amount of land thoroughly cultivated preparatory to being sown to corn and beans. Between Santa Paula and Newhall the land is mostly sown to wheat, but some barley, all looking tolerably well. The general expression of farmers along the route was that there is assurance of good crops with one or two more rains. From the Sespe down to Newhall the recent rainfall registered at least 2¼ inches. Looking from the cars on the way from Newhall to Los Angeles he observed that the wheat looked very much more thrifty than a year ago when he came over the same road. He believes that it will make a better crop than last year with a little more rain.

Didn't Explode.

Yesterday afternoon there was picked up from the sidewalk a cartridge that had just been stepped on and crushed by a lady passing by, but, fortunately, failed to explode. Parties handling these small torpedoes cannot be too careful.

Weather Report.

Observations taken by the U. S. Army Signal Service at 8.15 o'clock last night are as follows: Barometer, 30.18; Thermometer, 53; dew point, 34; wind, calm; 0 miles per hour; clear. Maximum thermometer, 62; minimum thermometer, 35.

Reported Suicide.

The youngest son of Don Juan Forster told a reporter of the TIMES that a man had committed suicide by cutting his throat some time Monday, about five miles this side of Forster City. The name and circumstances could not be ascertained.

The Antinori Again.

Those of our citizens who were fortunate enough to witness the Antinori concert at Turnverein Hall last Tuesday evening will read with pleasure the announcement that it will be repeated on next Wednesday evening. Those who missed this musical treat will be allowed another privilege to enjoy the artist's skill on the occasion.

Paymaster Sullivan, U. S. N.; who contracted the Panama fever while at the Isthmus, is recuperating in this genial clime.

Something must be wrong in the postal service between San Diego and Santa Ana, as an important letter mailed at the former place in January has yet failed to reach its destination.

Madame Umbert was fined five dollars yesterday by Justice Fisher for disturbing the peace.

Julia Cuthco appeared yesterday for sentence before Justice Fisher and was fined twenty dollars for a misdemeanor, of which she was convicted Tuesday.

Mr. J. A. Nelson's condition was a little improved last evening, and his friends are more hopeful for his recovery. The physicians report the gangrene as under control.

Geo. Towers, formerly a well-known resident of Los Angeles, but for eight years past a Colorado miner, has returned, as he says, to stay. He has traveled all over this continent, but is now satisfied to remain here and grow up with the country.

James Reilly, of Tombstone, passed through town yesterday afternoon on the San Francisco train. He is ex-proprietor of the Territorial Enterprise, and while editor of that paper did good service by exposing the frauds of Maricopa Democracy. He builded better than he knew. James deserves to be a Republican.

Mr. Murdoch of the Centinela Ranch was in town yesterday. He has two hundred acres which is sown to barley mostly. The sowing has almost ceased, but Mr. James Root will yet put in two hundred acres of barley. The barley is coming up in good condition, all that is necessary to insure good crops being ordinary light rains.

HISTORY.

How it is Made and Handed Down to Posterity.

Don Juan Warner Gives a Sample in Dana's Two Years Before the Mast—The Elder Harper's Opinion.

The reprint in a recent issue of the TIMES of an extract, from Dana's "Two Years Before the Mast," giving an account of a tragic affair which took place in this city while the ship, of which he was one of the crew, was in the port of San Pedro, recalls to my memory a conversation in which I participated.

At the request of, and in company with a gentleman, a resident of New York city, we called upon the Messrs. Harper Bros. In the course of a short conversation with the elder Mr. Harper, respecting the Pacific Coast of America, and more especially concerning California, Dana's book, then recently published, was mentioned, and the remark was made by me that it contained many erroneous statements which would mislead its readers respecting California; to which Mr. Harper replied that the book was not published as a veritable history, even of life before the mast during two years, much less as a truthful history of the country along the coast of which the writer had sailed. He did not think that any reader of common intelligence would read it as such a history; that the book was well written, the subject an interesting one; that it was a very readable book, and the sale of it had been great.

Notwithstanding the views of the publishers respecting the true character of the work, I found myself frequently called upon to explain to friends that I met, whose knowledge of California and its inhabitants had been chiefly gathered from Dana's book, how I could consent to live in such a heathenish and barbarous country.

Within less than half a century, this romance of an under-graduate, has become recognized as veritable history, and hundreds of thousands of English-speaking people in all future generations, so long as the California of the 19th century shall be known, will believe this tragic story of Dana's, although I, who was then a resident of Los Angeles, may write, and you may print and publish that no such tragic event did transpire, nor for the following reasons could have transpired: There was not killed any wife of an American; there was no Mexican General at San Gabriel Mission; there was not in 1835 or at any other time since Colonel Boone went to Kentucky down to this present writing, any such party, great or small, of Kentucky hunters, in or about Los Angeles, and as there was no such murder committed, no such unfeeling Mexican General, no such Kentucky hunters, no such unlawful Court to try and sentence, there could not have been any such execution.

SAN DIEGO DOTS.

[Union, March 7th.]

Fall Brook had a gentle "shake up" a few days since by an earthquake.

Parties who claim to understand such matters tell us that the approaching season will be a splended one for bee feed.

The freight steamer Santa Cruz arrived Sunday, bringing as part of her freight two coaches for the California Southern. The road is provided with four coaches.

The "Emma" made her regular excursion on Sunday. Mr. Nation's little steam yacht is becoming very popular, and will, no doubt, be kept quite busy as soon as the weather gets a little milder.

Mrs. H. H. Jackson, who is spending some months in California for the purpose of studying the old Missions, and writing an account of them for the Century Magazine, arrived in San Diego on the last steamer, and will spend two or three weeks here, visiting the oldest of all the Missions of Upper California, and gathering facts regarding its history.

A man named Collins was capsized in the bay yesterday. As there were parties near to assist him, he only got a good wetting, and probably learned the lesson that sailors, unlike poets, are made, not born.

The item telegraphed from Washington last week, that Hon. A. A. Sargent, the newly appointed Minister to Germany, had decided to appoint our old townsman and friend, David Felsenheld, as Secretary of Legation, is received with special satisfaction by his friends in San Diego. Mr. Felsenheld will visit his old home in the latter part of this month, to look after his property interests here before leaving for Europe.

CAN MAKE BUT NOT KEEP.

Carelessness and its Results—Sold for the Taxes.

How some men are well qualified to make money, but poor managers of the wherewithal when in their possession, is well illustrated in the case of a gentleman in the territories who owns property in this county. He has been earning for the past two years a salary of one hundred and eighty dollars per month. He owns a five-acre plat a few miles from this place that is finely improved. When a sufficient competence has been acquired it is his intention to settle down under his own vine and fig tree, and grow old gracefully. Carelessly he neglected to pay his taxes. The delinquency was officially advertised, and still he made no response. The day of sale came, and the little home he was making passed into another's hands. A friend, knowing his lack of business qualifications, and happening to see the name among the delinquents, investigated matters yesterday and redeemed the property for the paltry sum of the tax, with the usual fifty per cent. added for redemption. A letter is on the way with the information that the property has been sold for taxes to a "land shark," in the hopes that when the whole account may reach him it will cause a closer attention to business. And this is not a solitary instance. Such queer combinations of character are by no means rarely found.

Cheyenne Resolves and Petitions.

CHEYENNE, March 8.—In the Legislature to-day a resolution expressing confidence in Governor Hoyt and approval of his course for the past four years and requesting of the President his re-appointment, was unanimously adopted. A resolution was also adopted praying Congress to pass a bill giving Lieutenant Schwatke full pay instead of half pay while in command of the late Franklin search expedition.
